

2./2020. joint directive of the Rector and the Chancellor on the modification of the order of teaching at Kaposvár University

As the Rector and Chancellor of Kaposvár University based on 13. § paragraph (2) and on 13/A. § of the CCIV. law of 2011. on National Higher Education (hereinafter NHEL), paying attention to the provisions of the Organizational and Operational Regulations of Kaposvár University, based on 3. § of the Student Requirement System with regard to the students of Kaposvár University (hereinafter: University) and based on the authorisation of 4. § of the Employment Requirement System of the University based on the right to employ and instruction authority over the state employees and other employment, with regard to the emergency situation ordered by the Hungarian Government on 11th March, 2020, the order of teaching at Kaposvár University is modified as follows:

1. The rector declares the days between 12 and 15 March, 2020. to be a school holiday, accordingly the lessons and consultations published in Neptun are cancelled.
2. The period between 16 and 20 March, 2020. is a spring holiday, the spring holiday planned originally for the period between 9 and 14 April, 2020. will be term-time. Until the end of the duration of the emergency situation the students are requested possibly not to travel abroad, stay at their place of residence as far as possible.
3. From 23rd March, 2020. until further notice teaching will continue for the students in the form of distance education.
4. It is the duty of teachers and support units to create the conditions for distance education until 23rd March, 2020.
5. The Hungarian students are obliged to leave the dormitories at latest by 10 o'clock on 13th March, 2020. A Hungarian student may stay in the dormitory only in an extraordinary situation, based on individual equity application, with the rector's permission.
6. From 12th March, 2020. the students may not attend the university, administration and contact between the teachers and the students may happen only electronically, on the phone or by post.
7. From 16th March, 2020. the professional practices (including the continuous professional, teaching and dual education practice as well) are suspended until further notice.
8. The spring semester will probably be extended in order to be able to complete the tasks of the semester which require the presence of the students (eg. laboratory practices, exams).
9. The instructors and other colleagues of the University perform their tasks according to their usual work schedule until further notice, in their case the 1. /2020. joint directive of the Rector and the Chancellor still remains in force.

The present measures have been drawn up based on the action plan sent to the higher education institutions on 11th March, 2020. by the Ministry of Innovation and Technology as the maintainer, their introduction is intended to preserve the health of all gentlemen commoners and the population.
